ECONOMY NEWS

Jan 2026 Stanbic PMI slows to 51.9 from 53.7 in Dec 2025

According to the Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI) survey conducted by Stanbic Bank Kenya, business conditions improved at a slower pace in January 2026, in part due to a hushed uplift in sales. Companies reported a slower increase in employment and purchasing, along with a reduction in backlogs and concerns about excess inputs. In particular, the index came in at 51.9 – a slight dip from 53.7 recorded in December 2025, partly squeezed by subdued demand in the construction and wholesale & retail sectors. The PMI has been above 50 for five consecutive months, indicating sustained expansion in private-sector activity, although the momentum has slowed.

Kenya Power 1H26 results highlights

Kenya Power announced its results for the half-year period ended 31st December 2025, posting a 4.3% y/y increase in earnings per share (EPS) to KES 5.33. The firm's revenues from electricity sales increased by 6.9% y/y to KES 114.9bn, supported by higher electricity demand and improved distribution over the period. Cost of sales rose by 7.5% y/y to KES 76.7bn, mainly driven by higher electricity demand, with total energy purchases jumping by 8.3%y/y to 7,807 GWh over the duration. Operating expenses notched higher by 6.0%y/y to KES 25.2bn, which the power distributor linked to higher provisioning as customer debts grew, increased depreciation from the capitalization of completed network projects, and staff-related costs. Markedly, the company's finance costs tapered by 24.9%y/y to KES 1.5bn, reflecting lower interest expenses due to reduced debt levels and scheduled loan repayments.

The Board of Directors has recommended an interim dividend of KES 0.30 per share (up 50%y/y compared to KES 0.20 in the 2024/2025 period), with the book closure date penciled for 23rd February 2026.

Safaricom announces KES 0.85 interim dividend

In its usual fashion, the Board of Directors of Safaricom has declared an interim dividend in the business's fourth quarter, a KES 0.85 per share, to be paid on or about 31st March 2026, with a book closure date of 25th February 2026. The interim dividend is higher than our estimate of KES 0.62 per share. The payout ratio is similar to the prior year at c. 79% of earnings attributable to shareholders. That said, the quantum is 54.5% higher than the KES 0.55 interim dividend issued in 1H25.

Standard Group suspension of its previously proposed rights issue

The Board of Directors of Standard Group issued a notice to shareholders on 4th February 2026, announcing the suspension of its previously proposed rights issue. This decision follows a special resolution passed at a Special Meeting of the Board on 4th February 2026. The Board highlighted that the suspension is intended to allow the firm additional time to reassess the structure, timing, and viability of the proposed transaction, taking into account evolving market and operational considerations. Markedly, the suspension does not constitute a cancellation of the rights issue.
